ALBAUGH'S—PAULINE HALL OPERA COMPANY.—Erminie is the opera in which Pauline Hall will begin her one week's engagement at Albaugh's Grand Opera House Monday, April 6. It is a difficult matter to establish a new opera company in the public favor, but Miss Hall appears to have accomplished the feat in one season. She has with her all the artists who started out with the company in the fall, besides several new ones. Among these are Eichard F. Carroll, who made such a droll Captain in "The Brigands," and Nellie Arnold, who will play Javotte. Mr. Carroll will will appear in the title role, and the cast is excellent in other respects. A POLICY SHOP RAIDED. Quite an Excitement on D Street-The Game

There was an exciting scene in a three-stor, frame tenement at No. 1422 D street northwest yesterday afternoon, when Policemen Heller and Williams led a raiding party to break up s policy shop.

There was a spotter at each end of the square and the officers went down 15th street in the direction of the house.

When the officers turned the corner at the innction of Ohio avenue and I street the spot ter, a colored boy named Louis Holmes, ran to the back gate of the premises to give the alarm. He succeeded and a man inside closed and fastened the gate, but before he could get away from it the officers broke the gate in and the man went to the ground. There he remained until the officers had passed over him and reached the back door.

A white woman who weighs fully 300 pounds was found in the room, and she said that she had played white clothes row—"4-10-68"—on the old man, and Fred said that Hudson was one of his writers.

The two writers and the spotter were held as prisoners and the persons found in the house were summoned as witnesses.

THE WRITERS PLEAD GUILTY. When the cases were called in the Police Court today the writers plead guilty. The old man, according to Officer Heller, has been in about one week. He was given three months and the older offender was given four months. Holmes was sent down for sixty days.

No organization in the city deserves more liberal support and patronage at the house liberal support and patronage at the liberal support and against this as absolutely unfair and untrue. I am an American citizen to the backbone, who would never flinch in his duty to his adopted country. I thank God for America every day of my life. I owe my success, all the honor I have received, to the country of my adoption. My allegiance was sincere, my loyalty is indisputable. I cast back with scorn any insinuation or charge to the contrary from whatever source. My children have never known any other than the American soil and their language is the language of their native land.
